

HOWARD FORGE PRESS A HOWARD FAMILY STORY

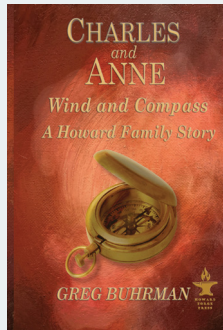

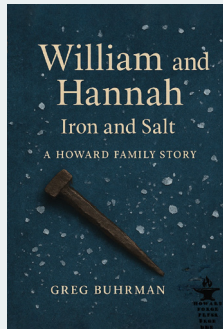

BOOKSELLER & PUBLIC LIBRARY SELL SHEET

WEBSITE

History is not only the story of kings, generals, and revolutions. It is the story of families who lived through them.

A Howard Family Story follows generations of one family through the upheavals that shaped Britain and America. Inspired by family history and grounded in major historical events, Greg Buhrman's novels pair intimate family stories with war, political change, loyalty, liberty, and the difficult choices that define a life.

William and Hannah: Iron and Salt

A Howard Family Story

A disinherited English nobleman and a blacksmith's daughter forge a new life together through war and exile, from the Seven Years' War to colonial America and the American Revolution.

HISTORICAL FOCUS Seven Years' War • French and Indian War • Colonial America • American Revolution • Blacksmithing • Class & social mobility

Paperback | 6 x 9 | 218 pages | $16.99 | ISBN 979-8-218-66582-1 | Howard Forge Press

Charles and Anne: Wind and Compass

A Howard Family Story

Bound by an unwanted marriage as England moves toward revolution, Charles and Anne navigate dangerous political alliances and conflicting loyalties to decide what - and whom - they are willing to sacrifice.

HISTORICAL FOCUS Restoration England • James II • William & Mary • Glorious Revolution • Political & religious conflict • Family & loyalty

Paperback | 6 x 9 | 246 pages | $16.99 | ISBN 979-8-9952869-1-2 | Howard Forge Press

WAKE COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Both titles are part of the Wake County Public Library collection.

INSTITUTIONAL ORDERING

Available through Ingram for bookstore, library, and school ordering.

Wholesale discount: 55%.

FOR LIBRARIES & BOOK CLUBS Clean, character-driven historical fiction. Book-club discussions, library programs, historical presentations, and author talks available.

GREG BUHRMAN | HOWARD FORGE PRESS

howardforgepress@gmail.com | howardforgepress.com

Author visits &
speaking available